Want to show your school pride on Facebook? The following steps will help ensure that you are choosing the correct St. Albans School to update your profile. On your FB page, go to the “About” section and to “Work and Education.” Type in “stalbansschool” (no spaces) in the “Where did you go to high school?” text box, and the correct St. Albans School option. Click on “Add School” to save your selection and “Done Editing” to finalize your choice. Don’t delay, update your FB profile page today.
Class Secretaries
Class notes for the winter 2013 issue of the St. Albans Bulletin are due October 4, 2013. Please submit your class notes and photographs (with captions) by October 4, 2013, to Robin Boswell. Please submit them in electronic format. We prefer high resolution images (300 dpi to print 4 inches wide). The St. Albans Bulletin cannot guarantee inclusion in the magazine of any information which arrives later than the due date. Thank you for your cooperation.

Wanted: Class Secretary
The St. Albans Bulletin is seeking a secretary for the Class of 1983. Class secretaries are responsible for corresponding with classmates and submitting write-ups two times each year. Being a class secretary is one of the best ways to catch up with classmates and maintain your strong ties to the School. If you are interested in one of these positions, please contact Robin Boswell at rboswell@cathedral.org.

Keep Your Classmates Up-to-Date
To submit news to your class notes, please contact your class secretary by writing to the address listed at www.stalbansschool.org and clicking on the class secretary link on the Alumni page. If you are sending a photo, please send a

Annual Giving Update
Coming Soon: The Preliminary Report of Annual Giving
Thank you to the 1,551 alumni who have supported Annual Giving this year. Your continued generosity ensures that today’s students have the same unrivaled experience as that of you and your classmates.

In a few weeks you will receive a copy of the 2012-2013 Preliminary Report of Annual Giving. Please be sure to check your listing and correct any inaccuracies before the School publishes the final and complete report this summer. Should you have questions or corrections, please contact the Office of Annual Giving at 202-537-6409.

Alumni contributions help sustain everything that we love about St. Albans. While you have until June 30, 2013 to support Annual Giving, why delay? Please consider making your gift today.

Reunion Giving
Congratulations to all alumni who will soon celebrate a Reunion! As you mark this milestone year, please think about making a special gift toward your class' effort to increase overall support and class participation. Your contribution not only demonstrates class and School pride, it provides essential resources for current students and their teachers.

If you’re not sure if you’ve contributed yet, or would prefer to make your gift over the phone, please call Rebecca Morris, assistant director of annual giving, at 202-537-6409 or send her an e-mail rmorris@cathedral.org.

Alumni In The News
Julian Micheaux Marshall '08 Directs OBEY the Giant
Special Branch, a film production company, and its founder STA alum Julian Micheaux Marshall ’08, have released OBEY THE GIANT—The Shepard Fairey Story. The film, starring Josh Wills as the title character, is based on Fairey's time at the Rhode Island School of Design, when he launched the Obey Giant street art campaign. Fairey is likely best known for creating the Obama “Hope” poster that was ubiquitous during the 2008 presidential campaign.

The website Short of the Week reviewed the film, writing, “OBEY the Giant is the rare thesis film that feels like anything but—an impeccably crafted, narratively thrilling biopic that has more polish than your average studio feature.”

The film, which contains some strong language, can be viewed online at obeythegiantmovie.com.
