Written by St. Albans alumni, faculty, parents, and staff, St. Albans School: The First Hundred Years recounts the story of our beloved School, from the initial gift that founded the National Cathedral School for Boys in 1909 to the completion of Marriott Hall. The book relates how the School came to be: how the curriculum, student body, faculty, and student life have—and haven’t—changed in one hundred years. And it traces some of today’s favorite activities—Blue-White Field Day, Chapel, football, class windows—back to the earliest days of the School.

Bishop Walker Invitational Basketball Tournament
Calling all STA Basketball Fans!

On behalf of St. Albans School, the Varsity Basketball Team would like to request your help in supporting the Bishop Walker Invitational Basketball Tournament. St. Albans School will host three days of superb high school basketball and help subsidize a great cause.

Tournament Information:
When: December 9-11, 2010
Where: St. Albans School
Participating Schools: St. Albans School (DC), Dwight School (NYC), Theodore Roosevelt (DC), Cesar Chavez (DC), The Heights School (MD), Cape Henry Collegiate (VA), The School Without Walls (DC), & Maret School (DC)

This annual tournament is in honor of Bishop John T. Walker who was the Bishop of Washington from 1977-1989. Bishop Walker was a distinguished member of the St. Albans community who served as the Dean of the Washington National Cathedral.

The 2010 tournament will raise much-needed funds to assist the Bishop John T. Walker School for Boys in Southeast Washington, DC (http://www.bishopwalkerschool.org/bws/). St. Albans School has taken the lead in helping to provide the necessary financial means not only to establish the school, but to sustain the school’s future growth.

The St. Albans Alumni Association Board and Head Basketball Coach Duane Simpkins are looking for interested alumni to volunteer and provide support for the Bishop Walker Invitational Tournament on December 9th-11th. The Tournament looks to be a top flight affair with 8 teams from both the DC area and as far away as Virginia Beach and New York City! In fact, come see fellow alums from the Class of ’81, Tommy Walker and Matt Lewis, who are now coaching at the Dwight School from New York City.

We’re looking for folks to help with the following:

- Securing sponsorships – full and half page advertisements from supporting businesses and individuals
- Volunteering during the tournament – to work the doors and take tickets and/or provide general logistical support
Donating game tickets (Washington Redskins, Wizards, Capitals, Univ. of Maryland or Georgetown Univ. Basketball) or gift certificates to local restaurants or movie theaters to be given away as prizes for raffles, dribbling competitions and shooting contests; and Last but not least to simply attend the event!

In fact, on Thursday, December 9th at 5:30 join other alumni in the new and improved Sam’s Bar (in the Marriott Hall) and re-connect with old friends before the Bulldogs take the court at 7pm.

If you are interested in volunteering your time, taking out an advertisement or donating game tickets or gift certificates to help make this event a huge success, please contact Don Swagart, the Director of Alumni Relations at 202.537.5289 or dswagart@cathedrlal.org.

We thank you for considering lending your support to the Bishop Walker Invitational Basketball Tournament.
