Annual Giving Update

STA 2010 Annual Giving... There’s Still Time to Give Before June 30!

With a fantastic Centennial Counselors meeting, Reunion Weekend, Marriott Hall Dedication and Flower Mart behind us (thanks to all who made that possible), we have six weeks to go until the end of the School’s fiscal year.

If you’ve not given or fulfilled your pledge yet this year, there’s still time. We need 605 alumni to fulfill pledges or make new gifts so that we can reach our participation goal for the year of 42%.

Please click here to visit St. Albans secure online giving page or contact Lindsay Williams (202-537-6409 or lwilliams@cathedral.org) to make a gift over the phone. Many thanks for supporting STA!

Opportunity for Young Alumni at British Think-Tank

Attention Young Alumni

Wilton Park, a major British think-tank of international standing is looking for bright, engaged university students to participate in their once-a-year Atlantic Youth Forum. Wilton Park is still actively carrying out its role as a forum for democracy building, post-conflict reconciliation and international dialogue first set by Winston Churchill 60 years ago.

The 8th Atlantic Youth Forum—to be held Monday, August 2, to Friday, August 6, 2010 at Wilton Park, England—provides an opportunity for young Americans, Canadians, and Europeans ages 18 to 24 to gain insights into each other’s concerns and perceptions on key challenges facing their countries and the international community, and to make lasting contacts. The program covers a range of political, security, cultural, economic, and social issues of major interest to the U.S., Canada, and European countries.

Conferences are deliberately kept small, with fifty participants in a 16th-century great house for round-the-table discussions in which everyone is encouraged to join in. For more information on Wilton Park, visit www.wiltonpark.org.

Any STA alumnus interested in participating should contact Dr. Robert M. Shurmer at rshurmer@cathedral.org.
