Miles Fisher is the Founder of Bixby Roasting Co., a specialty coffee roaster that services households, businesses, and consumer-direct brands around the world.

A graduate of Harvard, Miles lives in Los Angeles where he is a Trustee of Saint John’s Hospital and a Young Leader at the Milken Institute.

Miles has acted in many feature films and TV series and has recorded several music albums. He has travelled extensively to over 50 countries around the world, is an avid golfer, and is known to create viral videos... just for fun.